MAIN STREET DISTRICT

At the center of this capital city you'll find a revitalized Main Street where decades-old sites give rise to fresh perspectives. Impress your colleagues with the likes of a steakhouse or relax on rooftop bars with views of the cityscape. All this, less than a mile from the Convention Center. Here, there's something for everyone after your meeting wraps.

THE VISTA DISTRICT

Located right outside the Convention Center doors, The Vista is Columbia's artistic warehouse district, bustling with dynamite eats, drinks and things to do. From national chains like Panera Bread and Chipotle, to local favorites like Blue Marlin and Motor Supply Co. Bistro, there's no shortage of options. In Columbia, event attendees can look forward to exploring beyond the main event.
